

Please find synonyms to the following words:

audible stimuli: _____

narration: _____

well-thought: _____

interactive books: _____

interpersonal skills: _____

verbal communication: _____

assumptions: _____

patterns: _____

audible stimuli: something which can be heard, a heard impulse
adjective

able to be heard:

The lecturer spoke so quietly that he was scarcely audible at the back of the hall.

She gave an audible sigh of relief.

narration: 1 [U] the act of telling a story, story-telling

2 [C or U] a spoken description of events given during a film or television programme:

Dame Judi Dench did the narration for the documentary.

well-thought: well organized

Using audio books to teach kids in school allows teachers to have more time in planning more well-thought and interesting programs and teaching materials for your children

interactive:

adjective

1 describes a system or computer program which is designed to involve the user in the exchange of information:

an interactive game/video

This is an interactive museum where children can actively manipulate the exhibits.

2 involving communication between people:

interactive teaching methods

interpersonal skills:

adjective

connected with relationships between people:

The successful applicant will have excellent interpersonal skills.

verbal communication: spoken conversation, talk, discourse, discussion, chat, dialogue adjective

spoken rather than written:

a verbal agreement/description/explanation

Airport officials received a stream of verbal abuse from angry passengers whose flights had been delayed.

assumptions: hypothesis, impression, premise, presumption, presupposition, principle, supposition, theory, thesis patterns: (example, sample, specimen)

noun [C usually singular]

something which is used as an example, especially to copy:

The design is so good it's sure to set the pattern for many others.